“ I just found out about Paige's passing and I'm heartbroken. When I first met her in the 9th grade, she came into the library at PikeView High School asking to check out a book. She told me to call her Paige, so she was Paige to me all the four years I knew her. She was a prolific reader and we often talked books. The world has lost a sweet girl. ~ Donna Rogers (librarian, PikeView High School)
