“ Alice Faye Lusk, my dear precious Mom, my best friend. Thank you for making my life beautiful. Many times growing up, I was undeserving of you, but, you loved me through it. I'm lost here in this world without you, but, I'll come be with you soon. I'll keep my eyes fixed on heaven and my heart on Jesus. As you took your last breath here in this life, you took your first breath in heaven. I knew you saw your Lord and Savior when that big smile came across your face. Thank you Heavenly Father for my Christian parents.

God blessed me with the most amazing parents ever. My heart is broken again, but, my parents taught me about our Lord and Savior, and they led by example. I know while I may be sad that they are gone, I take comfort and perfect peace in knowing they're with the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I pray that anyone who doesn't know Jesus that this very second you will invite him into your heart. It makes me so happy when people tell me that I look like my Mom. I can't wait to see them again on that happy reunion day in Heaven.
