“ Oh the memories I have of Aunt Alma Faye, beginning with her helping me pronounce my "r's", listening to the radio and writing down lyrics to songs for Uncle Albert, going to the outdoor theatre on her dates with Uncle Albert, both of them teaching me my "ABCs", be at their wedding, staying with Aunt Alma while Uncle Albert was away, and so many, many more. They shaped my life for me and gave me a solid Christian foundation for which I will eternally be grateful. I will miss her laugh, her smile, and "Oh my golly". For Brad, Wendi, and family my sincere prayer for comfort which only our Lord can give. I love all of you.

“ Alma Faye was my Sunday school teacher and youth leader at Mt. Olive, when she was very young herself. She and Albert were so good with and to all of us. May she rest in eternal peace.
