“ From the first time I meet Billy he made sure that we talked to God and that he wanted to know if I believed in Christ. We spent hours talking of how old God has been to him that man never had a negative attitude about anything he always would say God has me. He showed me love like a brother. I am blessed to have our life's cross I believe in people crossing paths in life for a reason. He had a big impact in my spiritual life. Thank you Lord for letting me be apart of his life and knowing him. I will always be here day or night for his family any of them. They know I love them dearly.

“ I seen a video of Billy speaking at Church for the first time the other day. I cried my eyes out. I was proud of him and so happy for him and a little sad at the same time that he didn't get his healing here on earth. But Where he is now is so much better!!! Like Billy said many times God has him!!! He is healed now and has no more struggles. Praying for you all.
