My dear sweet friend!! I guess we'll get that reunion in the sky!! I'm so so very sorry I had no idea you had left this world, till I sent you a Happy Birthday wish! You helped me thru the hardest time I was having with my grandchildren & CPS in my life. Your prayers, love & friendship got me thru, even knowing you were having so many struggles of your own. You're free now my friend & nobody can ever hurt you again. I would like to thank her sons, Brenda told me how much you helped her & how blessed she was to have you. I will never forget your love, & will meet you in the sky. Brenda you knew me, I would have been there if I would have known! Rest free now girl, forever my dearest friend!!

“ Sorry to hear of your loss! I know it must be very hard for all who loved her! From Esther Hensley, Adelaide South Australia!

“ (I am sending my deepest condolences to Brenda's family and friends. I am sending my love and prayers to all. I can't stop thinking of her and her passing. I know that I should be rejoicing cause my sister is at home but upon the earth our hearts are so full of sadness for being without her. The light of Christ that shined from her into our life and to the world is greatly missed. In Revelation it says Blessed is he that dieth in the Lord from henceforth yea they shall rest from their labour but their works do follow them. Rest in peace my Sweet sister. Thank You for sharing your light of Jesus with me though Facebook. I love you. I will see you again. I received a very touching message from Brenda shortly before her surgery. This message i saved and will cheish it forever. This is my message back to her .)I love you very much my dear sister and I to cherish our sisterhood . My love and prayers will not stop assending up to heaven on your behalf.

I want you to know that Jesus has got this. He has your back always. He has his loving arms around you. He is holding your hand and walking right beside of you ,and when you think you can't take another step he will lift you off your feet and carry you. He is the one that when you cry is setting their drying all your tears. He will send you his Holy Angels to protect all your paths and guide your every foot step.I know that the path that you are one is a hard path to take but through it all keep your faith and a song of praise upon your lips. Remember that God worketh all thing for the good of those who love him. I know that you Love Jesus so much.

Brenda let your light that dwells inside of you keep on shining. It is that light that you have shown to others .It is that light that has bring many to Jesus Christ and the same light that has sent Satan and his demons realling. Your light shines so that your faith ,love , trust and belief shines through your post. The bible says we are a reflection of whom we serve.

We don't know where our journey upon this earth will take us but it is our hope that all paths will Glorify Jesus Christ.

So my dear sister grab the Cross of Jesus Christ , the word of God ,put the whole Armour of God On ,hold fast to the the mind of Christ and believe his word no matter what you hear and hold on for dear life.

You mean so very much to me and many.

God Bless all! Hugs!

I am shocked at what happened. I am in Africa at a country called Kenya and Brenda was my online pastor and inspirational bible teacher. I began missing her online since mid July 2016. She surfaced towards the end of July and when I visited her FB page to see what was happening to her, only to find that she had passed on. My heart and prayers go to the family.

I am so glad that we have stayed connected over the years & Happy that we were able to share our Faith & Love for Jesus! You just keep me a seat there in Heaven & when God calls for me, we can enjoy an eternity together! I will miss you, your emails & 4am texts. I Love you & I pray that God Comforts your sons & the rest of your family! Until we meet again, Shine Bright & Sing Loud cause I will be watching & listening! <3*

“ My sweet friend since jr. high, I can't even believe I'm on this page writing this when it hasn't been but what seems a few days since we talked. I don't know what you endured on your journey but I do know you had Jesus holding your hand and carrying you into Heaven. I wished I had known what was happening because I had some things I wanted you to have and some letters we promised each other we would bury in our secret place.

I think that's what made it so hard to believe. Oh, remember every now and then we would get called out because of our talking and whispering in class? Now and then....lol..more like every day. If I had known you were at Hospice I would have been right there with you and held your hand as you passed to the other side. I could have sat with you any hour of the day or night but you already know that. I'm so glad we became reconnected after the lost years of both of us moving around. I wish you would have told me what was happening to you and I could have called you and came to cheer you up. Had I only known I could have been there to comfort you through your pain. Had I only known.....

I love you my friend. We have talked for so many hours and just hung out together for so many school years and I will miss you so much. You are at peace now and I can only imagine the beauty of the streets of gold and the beautiful light that you are already enjoying but I will see you again one day and enjoy it all with you

Much Love to your Family

“ Brenda a I were friends, only a short time, but it seems like I knew her all my life. We laughed about being kindred spirits. She called me her big sissy, and she was my little sissy, but she got me through some rough patches. She had so much wisdom, for her age. I loved this woman of God, and she is going to be missed very, very much. See you baby sister, hopefully soon, in Heaven. Love You Sissy ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏
