“ I am Bill Christian's daughter my name is Sheila Christian Janssen. I have met Carl in person and I know he was a giving and good man. I know my father is very sad and heartbroken. They enjoyed their trips to Welch Church of Christ. He will be missed. I am so sorry for your loss. Especially Jetty his Mom and his wife and son. Sending prayers and love. I know my Dad doing his funeral is with love and admiration. This is probably one of the hardest times for my father to speak. He loved Anthony and as a brother in Christ. Love Sheila Christian Janssen You'll will be in my thoughts and prayers today. May God be with my father today to give him strength to express all the good about Anthony today. Knowing he is in heaven maybe some peace. But the one's that are left alone we grieve because we will miss them.

“ It seems like yesterday that we were playing in the yard with Lisa ,Michael, Debbie, Karen and Tina at Grandpa's house in Sandlick. It was great times. And as in all families, you grow up, and we all go our own ways. But you never forget the good times with your family and loved ones. I know you finally got to meet with the Lord yesterday, with family waiting with open arms. I bet right now, you, Jimmy, and Grandpa are sitting on the old porch swing , and you are singing old Johnny Cash songs like you did as a kid. Cousin, you are in good company with those who love you surrounding you. Yes, you leave others that love you behind, and yes we will miss you, but we will see you again, waiting for us with the Lord.
