

Chad Darren Cahill

February 3, 2017

NASHVILLE, TN – “For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” Romans 8:38-39

Chad Darren Cahill, 42, passed peacefully into the welcoming arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on February 3, 2017 at Southern Hills Medical Center in Nashville, TN. Chad was the son of Thomas Wayne “Butch” Cahill and Sierra Sue McManaway Cahill of Princeton.

Chad was born and raised in Princeton. He attended Concord University and graduated from Glenville State College with a forestry degree. He later furthered his education by becoming a Certified Arborist. Chad held numerous certifications and accomplishments in the field of forestry. After graduation, Chad worked for ACRT, a forestry management company, advancing to a supervisory position. He later worked for Nashville Electrical Services as a Senior Utility Arborist. Chad was an avid deer hunter and sports enthusiast. His caring, witty personality made him loved by many.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, William “Red” Cahill; and maternal grandparents, Paul and Lucille McManaway.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his paternal grandmother, Geraldine "Jerri" Cahill; sister, Cassie Cahill Reed and husband Alan; nieces and nephews, whom he adored, Brylan, Easton, Caelan and Baby Girl Reed. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends are left to grieve Chad's passing.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. Monday, February 13, 2017 at Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton with Pastor Scott Hodge officiating. Interment will follow at Roselawn Memorial Gardens in Princeton.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to fund research for a cure to Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy in honor of Chad's precious nephew, Easton Reed. Donations may be made online at EndDuchenne.org or mailed to Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy, 401 Hackensack Avenue, 9th Floor, Hackensack, NJ 07601. Please earmark your donations either in honor of Easton Reed or in memory of Chad Cahill.

The family will receive friends Sunday, February 12, 2017 from 4-7 p.m. at the Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. To view a video tribute to Chad, or share condolences with the family, please visit www.bailey-kirk.com.

*Please check back after 4:00 p.m. Sunday, February 12 to view a video tribute to Mr. Cahill

“ I consider it a privilege to have called Chad a friend as we worked together since 2003. He was always quick with a funny quote or chimed in with a sports fact no one else could remember. We had a ton of laughs through the years and sure do miss him here but find comfort in knowing that we will see him once again in Glory. Cahill family, my family will continue to pray for you.
