

Charles "Eddie" Davis

July 31, 1939 - December 17, 2022

PRINCETON – Charles Edward “Eddie” Davis, 83, of Princeton, died Saturday, December 17, 2022. Born July 31, 1939 in Bluefield, he was the son of the late Lloyd G. Davis and Stella Conner Davis.

Charles was retired from the Mercer County Board of Education as Director of Maintenance after 46 years of service. He enjoyed watching westerns on TV, was a HAM radio enthusiast and was known as “Swamp Fox” on CB radio. He enjoyed camping and being outdoors. He was an avid fan of Chevy’s. He was a jokester, had a great sense of humor and was very proud of his hair.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Linda G. Tabor Davis; daughter, Stephanie E. Miller; brother, William Davis; and other siblings.

Survivors include his son, Blane Davis and his wife Pamela; two brothers-in-law, Larry Tabor and Tommy Tabor; one sister-in-law, Barbara Hicks; four grandchildren, Jesse Gross, Erinn, Marina and Jacen; and special friends, Jim Hill and Buford Saddler.

There will be no services at the funeral home.

“ Eddie Davis has been a friend of the family since he was a boy delivering newspapers. He and Linda were our first neighbors when we were newlyweds. Eddie was a master electrician, and never minded sharing his wealth of knowledge. He was a great supervisor of maintenance, and was known for being strict but fair with everybody. He loved his family and friends unconditionally, and will certainly be missed by anyone who knew him. Buford and Cathy Saddler
