“ Charlotte's aunt Naomi is my grandmother. Charlotte and I used to spend time together in Richmond during the summers when I was a kid and she was a teenager. I always looked so forward to seeing her and hanging out with Grandma, Frances, and Opal. We saw each other again at Frances' funeral and I remember my son, who was only about 3 or 4, immediately took to Dave. All Dave had to do was mention four wheelers and my son never left his side, and they had never even met before. It was cool because it reminded me of how I felt about Charlotte when I was little. I am truly sorry for the loss of Charlotte and my heart goes out to everyone that loves her.
