“ *Tabitha,
I am so sorry for your loss. Cheryl was so much more than a mother to you. I know from our talks that you guys were best friends also. We talked about going on cruises together or going to the beach. She always laughed because she always wanted to go where you were going. She loved you so much. When I think of her I see that beautiful smile. I'm not sure she ever said an unkind word to anyone or about anyone. She was such a special lady. I am here for you if you ever need me.
Love and prayers to you ,one of my very special students; who became a friend.
