“ Clarence was my uncle but we was so close in age that we kinda grew up together and he was kind of like a brother. We had a lot of fun as teenagers but as we got older we grew apart because we went different ways. He was probably the one that got me into MOPARS. I still am into MOPARS till this day and every time someone finds out I like them I tell them I'm one of the 3 that's left and I always think of Clarence as one of the other ones. I love you Clarence and wish we'd stayed in touch more but I will see you again some day! Love JR. Sherry & Family!

I grew up with Clarence and he was like my brother. I didn't call him much, but called his name to the Lord several times a week. I love you so much and wish I had called more.
