“ Curt was a great friend to my family. We will always cherish the memories we had with Curt. He taught us so much as it relates to remodeling - he was always showing my husband how to do something. My youngest daughter called Curt "Curtain" when she was little. We loved him.

“ I knew Curt my entire life. I remember him fondly from my childhood, teen years, young adulthood and into our maturing years. He always remained a faithful friend. I will always cherish our last conversation whenever he came to tell me goodbye before my move. We reminisced about yesteryear: bike and sled rides, tree climbs, high school friends and the changes of life. Curt was one of a kind. To have been his friend is an honor that I will cherish always.

Im sorry for your loss Katrina. Curt will be missed by all. He never met a stranger and could tell a story like no other. He definitely had the gift to gab. My teenage/school years are filled with endless stories of shenanigans and bright ideas which involved Curt. We are blessed to have known him and he'll definitely be missed.
