I wish that I could remember when I first met Hector. He was my cousin, Larry Graham {Mooneye's } best friend, so that is probably where I first met him. He never changed over the years. He always had a smile on his face and a kind word. When my family and I moved back to Hiawatha we got into the habit of trading vhs movies with Hector. Back then there was no cable or internet in Hiawatha and Springton, so that was the only entertainment there was. Hector was always a good friend to us. We will miss him greatly. R.I.P. My friend and God bless you richly is my prayer.

“ Kay and family. Chris and I want to express our deepest sympathy to you all and to everyone that knew Hector. Hector was one of a kind. He was kind, good natured, loving and most of all he was ornery. He loved to pick on someone. I remember him from when we were kids at Arista. The world has definitely lost a good one and heaven has gained an angel. May God be with you and your family in the days and months ahead. Hang on to your faith in God. He is the only one that can help you thru this time. May he hold you in the palm of his hand and give you peace and comfort. We love you and our hearts and prayers are with you all.

“ I knew him as Danny and a child hood friend in grade school . We would play soft ball at recess and Danny and Billy Godfrey let me play because I was good at hitting the ball in the creek but the school was not going to give us another ball if they keep washing down the river. I had on slippery girly shoes on day. I hit the ball into creek and slipped on the asphalt and heard my arm hit and saw blood and bones. Danny didn't chase the ball that day. He helped me up and took me to the principles office and told MR Thorne "Edith hit a home run but we lost another ball" He was such a sweet person. Oh the principle took me to DR. Butt where I threw up my lunch. After I got the cast on my arm and back to school the teacher asked who would like to help Edith with her lunch tray. Only one hand went up and I thought boys liked me. Not with a broken arm. That one boy was Danny. Not ashamed to help the girl with the broken arm.
