“ To my dear Eddie—I so wish I could snap my fingers and make your life much better. I wish I could be there with you, just to hold your hand. I wish I could hug your neck and dry your tears for you are such a wonderful friend and you've had to endure such pain the past couple of years. What I can do is lift you up in prayer. I can ask our Maker to wrap you safely in His arms and give you the strength you need to survive the next weeks. And this I promise you, my friend. I am beside you in spirit, though not in person. I am here for you, day or night. I pray for your family, as well...for those who remain on earth along with those who have passed on. You are so blessed with the knowledge that they are in heaven and you will be with them again. I love you, my friend. Marty
