“ David always had a great sense of humor and often performing impersonations. Two of his best characters were Napkin Man and Rain Man. I always laughed when spending time with David. He was a good Man who loved his family and the Lord.

“ Always loved seeing David at Mass on Sundays or Saturdays, he would always shake my hand and tell me good job after I get done with serving or singing in the choir. I am so grateful for all the memories I have of and with him and I sure will miss seeing him and cannot wait for the day we can join him. Rest in Peace David
