“ Now words can ever be spoken to heal your broken heart during this time. We pray to the Lord that He pour out all His love and compassion on your family. Only you can know the pain for many times love is a very hurtful thing. We hold you all close to our hearts and prayers. We know that sis Delores is with Jesus and I know she is waiting for all of us to be joined with her. We will be singing with her one day again in Heaven where there will be no parting, no sadness, no tears and will live together forever. What a day that will be, but until then we must carry on living as she would want us to. We loved her here and we will have an even greater love for her there. We can only pray to the Lord for the easing of your hurt. May God give you all the strength as you walk this very hard and hurtful path. In Jesus name Amen
Sis Tammy and I love you guys

“ Verland, Pam, Donald, and Anita, I am truly sorry for your loss. Delores was a great lady. I can't even count the times that she and Verland would travel with mom to sing at churches. We have had some great memories. I will always remember us coming to Delores' house and Anita and I would play some. I was a bit older than Anita but I still like to play. I will cherish these memories with the Cecil family and I look forward to Delores greeting us on the other side. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
