“ Donald E. Mann

“ The first time I met Donald was the spring of 1995. John Ryan and I had retired to Monroe County in the fall of 94 and often would take short trips to view the beauty of West Virginia. Coming down Buzzard Run, Uncle Wilber's drive was a mass of Mann's. John pulled in and was as happy as a kid in a candy store.....all those cousins together....The occasion was to take down a tree for Uncle Wilber. They were waiting on Donald. When he got there he started his chain saw and started to dance a little jig. I was watching from the outskirts. Uncle Wilber shook his head and said," that boys a mess."

I have many fond memories of all the Mann cousins and in particular the dancing tree surgeon. Such an honor to have known him.
