“ I met Donna through Sydney when our girls entered primary school together. Sydney was always the light of her life! she always tried to do things for and with Sydney no matter how bad she felt. Then just a few years later we discovered she had married Daniel and was now in our family! She tried so hard for her family to just be normal while on the inside she suffered with such bad health yet always smiling. I will miss Donna at school functions and such as our girls grow up. I pray for you all Sydney, Daniel, Donna's mom and the family. Donna was a beautiful lady inside and out my wish for Sydney is to continue to make your mom proud and live a wonderful life until you see her again!
