“ My sweet Aunt Dot, you are certainly missed. To the family...as you grieve. God has promised that comfort will come, that peace will be restored, that tears will eventually cease. May the memories of our loved one...of happy times, of joyful smiles, of hearty laughter, and caring words help us through this sorrowful time. "Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable-if anything is excellent or praiseworthy - think about such things." Phil 4:8. May He carry you though during this time of prayers for loved ones, and wrap you in His arms and bring you along to follow His path of faith.

“ For a loved sister, miss you already. Wish we had lived closer so had more time these last few years with you. May God be with those left behind. Our sincerest sympathy for all you had to go through. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Praying for friends to comfort your loved ones; faith to uphold them, & loving memories (as we have) to carry them through.
