“ Doug was a wonderful brother. I will never forget him and love him the same. He was always laughing and cutting up. He was abused a lot in life and had his heart broken many times by those he loved. He is at peace now with his baby n mother n dad. Heaven is richer. Will see you again soon. Rest for now pain free.

Doug was my dads best friend, (Charlie) to my dad Doug was more than that he was his brother. They remained close over the years. My childhood is filled with wonderful memories of visiting his home. He was always so kind, always smiling, and his heart was bigger than he was. To Shelia, Jeff, Patty, and Drema, I send my heartfelt condolences. I know him and my dad are now reunited in Heaven, and their enjoying their friendship once again. Rest In Peace Doug you will never be forgotten~

Doug was a loving husband father stepfather and Papa. He loved his wife Betty he would give her a kiss after every meal. He was a wonderful father in law. He taught me to drive a tractor bulldozer and ten speed dump truck. I have to many stories to share he was loved. He loved to sing. Now he is singing with the angels and his wife Betty and his mom and daughter. They are all up there dance and singing. He will be missed. Love and miss you alot love Barbara Beavers

Doug was my brother. He is loved in death as well as in life. He was always making people laugh with his jokes, drawings and the love he gave out. He is at rest now in the arms of our Lord Jesus and celebrating with all that have gone before us, our mother and dad, my sister Wanda. Rest in Peace, Doug. Love you forever.
