“ My heart just broke when I heard about Edna passing. Such a huge part of my childhood.. We just talked a couple weeks ago and you were laughing about me hiding in the trash can at Clark's gap church, so I could stay in your room. You called me your little church mouse.

There are so many memories I will cherish.

I remember the first time i met you was when i lived with Ricky when i was a little girl about 10 or 11 years old. Ricky use to take me and little Ricky to church with him every sunday and Edna Jean was a Sunday school teacher at the Garwood Church. She was an absolute beautiful person inside and out who loved Jesus with all of her heart and soul. Loved teaching the word of God that's for certain. An you remembered me from way back then that was like 27 years ago. I know I will see you walking the streets of gold when we all go to heaven what a glorious day that will be. I remember the last time I seen you was when you was singing that song. I will miss your face at church, but I know that your time here on earth is through. You will be missed by so many dear Edna Jean. Love you sweetheart.
