

Edward Cook, Jr

August 23, 1920 - June 7, 2016

Edward Michael Cook, Jr, 95, of Princeton died Tuesday, June 7, 2016 at Princeton Community Hospital after a brief illness. Born August 23, 1920 at Hewlett, Virginia, He was the son of the late Edward Michael Cook, Sr. and Delphine Hodge Cook .

Mr. Cook made Princeton his home for the last 16 years living with his daughter. He was formerly of Coal City, West Virginia. Mr. Cook was a World War II veteran, serving in five major European campaigns. After leaving the service, he became a coal miner until he retired. His hobbies were working on cars and trucks and being at his favorite place, White's Service, in Coal City, with Ronnie White and friends. He enjoyed his family visiting and talking with him and sitting on the porch soaking up the sun. He was the last surviving member of his immediate family.

In addition to his parents Mr. Cook was preceded in death by his son, Daniel Cook and oldest grandson, Jack Brian Pollack.

He is survived by his two daughters, Wilma Jones, of Princeton, and Donnita Pollack, with whom he made his home; two granddaughters, Rebecca Jennings and husband, Joshua, and Kaitlyn Smith; four grandsons, Christopher Jones and wife Kelley, David Jones, Benjamin Jones and Joshua Pollack and wife Katrina and one great grandson Layne Jones.

A graveside service will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, June 9, 2016 at Roselawn Memorial Gardens in Princeton. Friends attending the graveside service are asked to meet at Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton by 10:45 a.m.
