“ Over 20 years we laughed we cried we departed and we tried through it all we would always say we love each other no matter the way. Good times and bad I will never forget this full of life man who seem to never quit. I will say he asked for prayer he believed in God and wanted to be there in heaven with his mother and family there. May you rest in peace my dear precious friend until the days close I'll see you again rest in peace in heaven Eric Matthew Graham 🙏
