“ *To the family of Ethel Lusk: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). “ Aunt Ethel will be missed. She was the classiest lady I knew. She always knew how to dress and as a little girl that impressed me. I always thought of her as a queen. Now she is a queen in heaven with all her crowns and jewels. Sending prayers to the family.

“ Dale, many years have past but our memories linger of the fun and good times. The same is true when we lose someone close. I remember my parents daily. An event, a lesson learned, a philosophical wisdom they shared. Although we can't touch, hug or feel them they will always be with us. I'll keep you and your family in my prayers.
