“ *To the family of Franklin Farmer Jr.: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). “ My heart goes out to you Tina. I know how it is to lose someone that has a large part of your heart. Franks was a good man. A Hard worker and lived his family. I did learn that much from him in the short time I knew him. To Kimmie Tommy, & Kenny, my heart goes out to you. Remember I know how hard it is to lose a brother, I lost Michael way to soon. If any of you guys need anything or just to talk please don't hesitate to call. If you don't know my number Tina has it.
