

Hazel Hess

March 17, 1937 - February 11, 2022

PRINCETON – Hazel Odle Hess of Princeton went to meet Jesus on Friday, February 11, 2022. Born March 17, 1937 in Matoaka she was the daughter of the late Reese Odle and Catherine Mitchem Odle.

Hazel is survived by her children, Susan, Cecelia, Jerold, Catherine, Sharon and Clyde. She loved all of her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She loved her church family like they were her own. She was the best mom in the world and believed in Jesus and lived her life that way. She loved cooking food for everyone who came over and loved to give everyone “pink streaks” around their necks. But first and foremost she loved saying, “Jesus first.”

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, February 16, 2022 at Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton with Pastor Johnny Powell officiating. Interment will follow at Odle Family Cemetery on Connor Mountain, Weyanoke.

“ I have a very special memory of this Beautiful Lady that loved Jesus so much! I remember every time I would go to church she would always greet me with a smile & a kiss on the cheek & tell me how much she loved me and you always knew she meant it from her heart! She always told me to call her Granny :) Every year during Christmas she would give everyone in our church a special card that she wrote in for each of us. I still have mine :) She always would draw little happy faces or something happy to make you smile. I love you, Granny. Thank you for always loving us & taking care of us in church. Oh & all the candy you would sneak to us. You were truly an Amazing Lady chosen by God to love others that grew to love you too! You will be missed deeply! Fly High Granny & Praise your King Jesus! I will always love you!
