“ I was shocked and saddened to hear about Heath's death. Words seem far too inadequate to express my sadness. The loss of a child is far more than anyone should have to endure. Please remember, just as on the day of his birth he lived in your hearts, your heart is exactly where he will remain. May God bless you; the Fenton family will pray that God fill your hearts with the many beautiful memories of your son to ease your pain. Please know that I understand your loss and will remain here for you if you ever need to talk.

“ I'll always love heath. I can't believe he's gone. He always knew what to say or do to make my day better. He could make a crowd entriged with anything he was talking about. Thats just the type of person he was. He cared so much for others and I will never understand why this happened..ill always have a place in my heart for you heath. Please rest in peace and you'll forever be in my heart along with many others. I love you and your family.

“ I spoke with Heath as we enjoyed lunch at a recent family reunion; and I listened as he shared his aspirations to make great music and to go back to college to learn more about music. My heart is broken, as is our entire families. We will continue on our lives journey without Heath ~ with help from God.
