I am the grand daughter of Bessie Lee Holt and I am searching for relatives who could fill in some family history. Granny used to refer to Little Henry so I am wondering if this is his family.

“ It is with a heavy heart I send my condolences to the family. We spent years around one another and I was always welcomed as part of the family. I too lost my father last year and it was one of the hardest things I ever had to endure. Yet again even in death my father taught me a lesson, use the strength of your family and friends to trudge forward even in these difficult times. Richie Hylton
