“ Aunt Idena was dearly loved and I have a lot of memories to cherish. Especially all the nights I stayed at their house as a young teenager. Always playing games, listened to music, after Uncle Boone went to work of course. Got told so many stories that we couldn't sleep or afraid to try! Prayers for the family with much love!

With condolences and sadness for the family, I pray that you can overcome this stage of your life. Have peace, for Idena was well loved and admired. She leaves behind a well structured family with the inclusion of her many, many nephews and nieces, whom she loved and was very instrumental and influential throughout their lives.

Be in peace for we love and thank her for her presence in our families.

This injure to our hearts is only temporary for we shall rejoice together again in Heaven!

With due respect, You will be so tremendously missed!
