“ To Jack's family. Jack and Mavis were always so caring and kind to me and my mother. Mom would spend time with Jack's sister, Duvalle, when she was ill. Duvalle was my mom's sister-in-law and Jack always made sure they had what they might need. It is so sad to see our parents grow older and knowing we can't do anything about it except be there for the. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I know Mom would want me to let you know how sorry she is and that she thought so much of both Mavis and Jack, but is now in nursing facility with dementia and most of the time doesn't remember a whole lot.

Praying for you!

“ Jackie, I'm so sorry for your loss. Jack was one of my favorite deliveries for all the time I worked at UPS. I'd stop in some times just to see what he was working on and maybe pick up a trade secret if he was in the mood! Such a kind guy every day.

“ Jackie, your dad was a very special man and I admired him very much. Mayce and Ceber loved him and I'm sure they along with your Mother and all the rest of those who are with the Lord are having a happy reunion. The first time I met Jack was in 71 when I was doing my student teaching. We were at a Sports Banquet and you brought him up to me and said "This is my Daddy.". I remember it like it was yesterday. You were so proud of him. Love to your family. Rae

“ Jackie - So sorry to hear of your father's passing. He was a good man and I am happy to have known him and your mother all of my life. I know it was hard on him (and you) to live on without your mother, but God has now reunited them. May you continue to know the comfort of God's tremendous love.

“ Jackie, many people pass our way throughout out lives, but your dad was our special "Earth Angel" sent from above. His smile was infectious and we always saw that every morning when he would walk across the yard to visit for Carl and his "council meeting" as they called it. We prayed, laughed and cried together in our many trials and tribulations, but always knew whenever we were in his presence, we were children of God. May you be blessed in your memories of such a fine man and we always remember your mom also. May their souls have eternal rest.

“ Jackie, I will never forget your sweet dad the day of Leanne's wedding! What a fine, jovial guy he was, standing in charge of seven ladies, waiting to be seated. I know you will miss him terribly. Our family will be unable to see yours that day, but know that our prayers are with you all.

Love, Cathy and Sack
