

Jack Rutledge

June 29, 1940 - May 1, 2016

PRINCETON – Jackson Lee (Jack) Rutledge, 75, of Princeton, formerly of Matoaka, went to be with his Heavenly Father on Sunday, May 1, 2016. He was the son of the late Samuel Carl Rutledge and Susie Shuler Rutledge.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Lorraine Hale Rutledge; one son, Coy Rutledge; five sisters, Margaret Woods, Dorothy Davis, Mary White, Carrie Mae Underwood and Ennis Boyd; and one brother, Harold Rutledge.

In his early years, Mr. Rutledge worked at Consol Island Creek Mines. He enjoyed singing and playing the guitar with his wife Lorraine at church. Mr. Rutledge was full of life and loved making people smile. He was so loved by many. He will be carried on in our hearts forever.

Survivors include one son, Rick Rutledge and his wife Lisa of Peterstown; one grandson, Justin Rutledge and companion, Jennifer; three great grandchildren all of Weyanoke; two sisters, Bessie Thorne and husband Wayne of Mt. Vernon, IL and Betty Green and husband Thomas of Narrows, VA; and several nephews and nieces, including his caregiver, Belinda White and husband Raymond of Matoaka.

A memorial service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, May 14, 2016 at the Matoaka Pentecostal Church with Pastor Ray White officiating.

Arrangements by Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.bailey-kirk.com.
