“ Jack (George) was not just a resident at Stonerise, he was my friend!! I would inconspicuously put a few Dr Peppers in his room and never said anything to him. Obviously knowing he was a super mountaineer fan, on occasion I would see something that had WVU on it,I would sneak it into his room and again I never said a word. One day I passed him in the hall and he said thank you, I asked for what. He said I know you put things in my room!! One day I stopped in the hall and asked him about what was on his wall,I would say. He was like a kid at Christmas, he kept asking for a hint,he made a special and speedy trip to his room to see the big WVU flag I put on his wall!! He was my WVU Google man, he knew more about them than anyone I've ever known!!! I will always remember his smile and our friendship!! Oh and the fresh peanut butter fudge he would share with me!! Thank you George for being my friend!! I hope I was able to be a part of making Springfield your home!!! I will miss you my friend!!! WVU PROUD !!
I will forever remember his smile

“ George will be my forever prom date. He was the first resident to convert me to a WVU fan and he would always tease me by saying... You may be a Yankee but you look good in Blue & Gold. Thank you George for your kind heart, your dedication to our Senior Fitness Program and your love for life. I/we will miss you dearly. Don't worry my friend, I promise to watch all of the GAMES for you.
