“ Jimmy was like a brother to me. He was always there if and when I needed him. But mostly I remember Jimmy as a hard working family man. He worked in the mines until he couldn't and then went to the railroad and worked some more. After that he worked for his Uncle Jerry. All the while with this grin on his face and a silly laugh.

He loved his family, his parents, his siblings and his kids. He was always so proud of his son and absolutely adored his girls. That is what I will remember him for most. I feel that is how he will be most missed, as an unwavering love for his family.

Rest in Peace Jimmy. You sure earned it.

I will miss one of my first real friends from Matoaka West Virginia. In the seventh grade we became great friends and would ride bicycles off of Arista Mountain sometimes in the dark and even doubling each other when we only had one bike. We worked together at Turkey Gap Mines and his family treated me like their own. His Mon Dad and brother and sisters were the best and funniest people to be around. May the peace and understanding of the scriptures be fulfill on the family in this dark time.
