

James "Jimmy" Thompson Sr.

August 4, 1941 - November 23, 2023

LASHMEET - James "Jimmy" Lee Thompson Sr., 82, of Lashmeet, left this world in the early morning hours on Thanksgiving, November 23, 2023 at his home. Born August 4, 1941 in Pettry, he was the son of the late James Garnet Thompson and Georgia Phyllis Hypes Thompson.

Jimmy was a hard-working man and a hard man as well. He was a home improvement contractor, having served many states. He had a difficult upbringing with many struggles along the way. He had a big giving heart that not many got to see. He loved his wife, his sons and his grandchildren. He would do anything he could for his family, even if it meant that he would do without. He loved listening to gospel bluegrass music and loved Ralph Stanley's "A Robin Built A Nest On Daddy's Grave;" He would play it over and over. He will be desperately missed.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife of 57 years, Lela Wanda Thompson; son, Eric Joseph "Joey" Thompson; and five siblings, William Richard Thompson, Sandra Burkes, Charlotte Dehaven, Mark Thompson and Wayne Thompson.

Survivors include two sons, James "Buddy" Thompson, Jr. and Marvin Thompson and his wife Stephanie of the home; one granddaughter, Manna Bane and her husband Brent of Green Valley; one grandson, James Jared

Thompson and his fiancée Megan Cox of Bluefield; and eight siblings, Judy Wiley, Gary Thompson, Carol Whittaker, Fanny Cox, Clyde Thompson and his wife Marlene, Sue Hurley, Tammy Adams and Joe Thompson and his wife Lisa.

Jimmy chose to donate his body to Marshall University John C. Edwards School of Medicine. In honor of Jimmy's wishes, there will be no memorial service.

Arrangements by Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.bailey-kirk.com.

It's hard to believe that he's gone. He was a hard simple man that enjoyed being around people and at the time of his decline, none of his friends came to see him, but one and all were welcome to come and see him. He just gave up.
