“ I am certainly sorry to hear of Mrs. Bell's passing. She provided family tree information to me for Fred Russell and William Henry Russell. I will always appreciate my contact with her and the good information she provided.

ROGER RUSSELL - January 10, 2013 at 02:49 PM

“ To the family of Janice Bell: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death affects everyone on the face of this earth, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those grieving with comfort or a hope, but they do leave many with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29, Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19, Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:3, 4).

“ Mrs. Russell was also my homeroom teacher (class of '85). She always seemed to have her hands full with a couple of my class mates, but I think she enjoyed every minute of fussing at those who loved to give her such a hard time. I saw Mrs. Russell on several occasions after graduating, and she was always interested in how her former students were doing. I pray that the peace that can only come from God will be with her family.

“ The family has my heart felt deepest sympathy for your loss. I pray the Lord comforts everyone and gives you strength during this sad time. Mrs. Russell was my home room teacher in high school for six years at Athens High School. She was a character and I loved her dearly. Mrs. Russell made the best fried apple pies and I would always ask her to bake a batch and bring them to school. And here she would come one morning with a big tray of fried apple pies she had made for me. She is one person who I will never forget and I am so sorry to hear of her passing. God Bless Mrs. Russell's family as you go through this difficult time. Cammie Brinkley Hester
