“ Roger, Jean and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Maxine has always been such a sweet, quick-witted Christian friend that I've known since my teens. She is now with her beloved husband, Joe, and I'm sure she's happier than she's even been. May the Lord Bless you abundantly with grace and peace during the difficult days ahead.

“ Maxine would laugh at me right now because I had a story and as soon as I got on here I forgot it. I will just have to go with what I can remember now. All the years I knew Maxine (since I was 13) she never said an unkind word to or about anyone. She was truly a wonderful person. We know she's with her siblings she loved so dearly. God grant peace to her family that's left behind to miss her joyful presence.
