“ I miss you so very much. I wish you were still here so I could call you all weekend and annoy you that you're getting older. Being at college and not being able to talk to you AND mom hurts, but I know you would be here if you could. I hope someone is taking care of you now that we can't. I love you and hope that where ever we go when we die is treating you well. You were too good of a person and father to not receive that. Love you, Dad. We miss you.
