

Jimmy Phillips

November 16, 1941 - March 31, 2020

PRINCETON – James “Jimmy” Phillips, 78, of Princeton, died Tuesday, March 31, 2020. Born November 16, 1941 at Widemouth, he was the son of the late Raymond Phillips and Pauline Clark Phillips.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by five sisters, Gail Stamper, Sue Young, Darla Reed, Annie Burnett and Sharon Wood; and two brothers, Curtney Phillips and Joe Phillips.

Jimmy was a retired construction worker. He was a member of Fairview Christian Community Church in Princeton where he sang in the Gospel Lights group, was a Sunday School teacher, assistant Sunday School superintendent and usher. He received awards for perfect attendance. He loved bluegrass music and was an avid fan of the WVU Mountaineers, New York Yankees and New York Jets.

Survivors include his loving wife of 56 years, Phyllis Bowling Phillips; daughter, Teresa Phillips of Princeton; one sister, Lou Wert and husband David of Princeton; one brother, Ronald Phillips of Roanoke, VA; two grandsons, Jordon Farmer and wife Kristie of Bluefield and Jared Farmer and wife Autumn of Bluefield; three great grandchildren, Traiven Farmer, JoAnna Farmer and Jazilyn Farmer.

Services will be at a later date.

Arrangements by Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.bailey-kirk.com.

“ Jimmy always had a joke to make us laugh. He loved the Lord and being in church. We have been friends with the family for many years and made several trips together. Miss him so much but look forward to seeing him again soon! ❤️

“ Phyllis, you and Jimmy were one of the first people to make me feel welcome when I started coming to church at Fairview. Our church just won't be the same without Jimmy up there on that front row praising God. We will all miss him but we can also rejoice knowing what a wonderful place he has gone to and how happy he is in Heaven now. I know he'll be there to meet each of us "by the river" when our time comes to join him and all our loved ones in Glory. Gone but always missed and never forgotten.

“ Will always remember Jimmy for his excitement at the gospel concerts. Many times I thought he was going to come out of his seat and start dancing with excitement. Always loved to hear him sing. He is sadly missed. Prayers for family.

Jimmy was quite a remarkable man. He always had a smile and a warm welcoming greeting for anyone he met. He loved to "get you" on Bible verses. He was such a precious man and his memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew him. Sending my love and prayers to his family. I will miss this wonderful man!

“ *I miss you already JimBo!
I know I've told you a thousand time over the past two year just how much you mean to me but I feel the need now to tell everyone how special you are!*

You taught me that love hold no bounds. That you don't have to be blood to love someone with your whole heart. You always loved me and treated me (your Little BabyDoll) like I was your daughter. You taught me, from the time I was three months old, what it meant to provide for a family and work hard, what it meant to be a Christian and with you in my life I knew the love of 2 Daddy's, what a lucky girl I am! You also gave me a since of style by being the most Dapper man I have ever met! I will always remember Sunday morning ready for church with you in your Sunday best, my favorite will always be that soft pink blazer with the powder blue shirt and khaki slacks!

I'm going to miss our messenger chats, we've had many over the past two years, I'm so grateful we were able to reconnect. I needed someone to understand he road I've Ben on the past two years, I asked for strength and God sent you to me when I needed you the most.

I AM going to miss you JimBo, real bad.

Thank you for loving me always. Thank you for all the wonderful memories I will cherish for eternity!

I LOVE YOU MORE THAN YOU COULD EVER KNOW!

Rest well. Until we meet again...

“ *Phyllis and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Although it is difficult now, please hold onto the loving, happy memories you have of this wonderful man. You know he is in Heaven with loved ones that have gone before us. Maybe even having a cup of coffee with my Mom and Dad. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. We love you!
