The Combs Family, Donald, Wanda & Cecil - March 22, 2020 at 06:06 PM

Thank you so much. I know Josh spoke very highly of Cecil and your family. He just loved his friend and having fun with them. He was a very good boy and lived his life doing what he loved. We were always so proud of him. I don't know how to make it without him. His dad is just so lost now. He was the Apple of his eye. That was such a touching turnout of love from everyone. Really helped our hearts to feel better. And what a funeral procession. We are so grateful for each and everyone. Thank you for being his friend.

I remember josh when he was just 7 years old. I would go to Nancy and Harveys house sometimes and do a lil work for them. Even as young as he was. He was a very respectful kid. Very Smart. I always knew that kid could be anything he wanted to be. Nobody could ask for a better kid. I never seen him onetime back Talk and when he was asked to do something he done it. Great Kid. It had been years sense I seen him a couple of months Before that horrible thing happened I seen him at my aunts House. He was dating my lil cousin. I couldn't believe how big he Was. And he was the same palite respectful young man. Such a Awful loss. That boy would have went so far in life. I'm so sorry Nancy and Harvey for halls loss. I know he ment the world to Y'all. Yall raised a great kid. The time he had here in this life was Short but you and Harvey filled his life with love and support he Couldn't have asked for two better parents every day he woke he Knew he was loved dearly.
