

Joyce Fletcher

April 24, 2013

PRINCETON – Joyce Ann Hartley Fletcher, 62, of Princeton died Wednesday, April 24, 2013 at Princeton Community Hospital. Born December 10, 1950 in Columbus, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Lilburn Catron and Judy Ann Frances Jones Catron.

She was a homemaker and of the Pentecostal faith. She attended Guided Light Church in Bluefield. She cherished her grand babies and was a maw maw to all the children in her community. Joyce had a deep love for everyone. She enjoyed working puzzle books and loved her flowers.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by two sisters, Jerry Graham and Marie Coleman and four brothers, Leonard Taylor, Bobby Catron, Ellis (Doug) Taylor and Junior Taylor.

Survivors include two daughters, Brenda Stacy and husband Nathan of Princeton and Catherine Boothe and husband Everette of Roanoke, VA; two brothers, Russell Catron of Princeton and Irvin Taylor of Michigan; five grandchildren, Cory Stacy, Marinda Lusk, Alexzander Stacy, Conner Boothe and Brandon Boothe and special partner, Grady Dudding.

A memorial service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. Monday, April 29, 2013 at the Rowland H. Bailey Funeral Chapel of the Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton with Pastor Bobby Koen officiating. Honoring her wishes the body has been cremated.

Friends may visit at the funeral home on Monday, April 29 from 1:00 p.m. until the service hour. To view a video tribute to Joyce or send the family online

“ I am so glad that I got to meet and know your mom. She was such a pleasure to be around, always smiling and laughing. She was a inspriation to all who met her. I know you will miss her but always remember she is up there looking down on each of you and smiling. The question is-as Connor put it the other day when he said she was up there playing ball now with Sable, Fred and pop paw-just whose motorcycle is she ridding on the back of-Fred's or pop paws. I told him probably pop paw's cause ma maw Joyce would want to ride around on the shinny red one. Love you

“ Mother, Our hearts are so heavy, Tears fill our eyes. Your memory forever will always stay alive. Gods plan on that day was finally done, Your new home you have gone. With no more worries , no more cares. Celebrate now with all of peace and much love. You will always be in our heart and our mind, as you leave and we all remain behind. I see you smiling , I hear your precious laughter. Happy as can be now rejoicing in the forever after. Always remember Momma please never forget , Your lil babies Love you Forever, and forever in your debt. I wont say Good Bye-But Until we meet again, able to give you our hugs and kisses. In our hearts we will cherish and hold Our Mothers Love. Thank you from the bottom of our Hearts for being our Mother and sharing your Life , Laughter and Love. Love Your Daughters , Kay and Brenda.
