

Judith Karen Vider

April 16, 1943 - February 1, 2015

PRINCETON- Judith Karen Vider, 71, of Princeton died at her home on Sunday, February 1, 2015. Born April 16, 1943 at Mineola, NY she was the daughter of the late Leonard Lenoce and Carmela Pepe Lenoce.

She was a former resident of New York and had lived in West Virginia since 1998. She was on the prayer force at Princeton Church of God and attended services at The Bridge Church in Princeton. She enjoyed playing the piano and saxophone and was well known for her cooking and insisted that visitors to her home share a meal. In her final days, she enjoyed visits with Corrian from Commission on Aging who read the Bible to her. She was thankful for the care given by the nurses from hospice.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Zoltan Vider in 1992 and one sister, Janet Worlin.

Survivors include one daughter, Cathy Brock and husband Kenneth Michael Brock of Princeton; one son, Zoltan Vider, Jr. of Myrtle Beach, SC; four grandchildren, Jewel Vaughan, Jamie White, Zoltan Vider, III and Dalton Vider and four great grandchildren, Cameron Alton, Kendra Vaughan, Brock Vaughan and Winter Vider.

A memorial service will be conducted at 6:00 p.m. Thursday, February 5, 2015 at Princeton Church of God, 250 Oakvale Road in Princeton with Pastor Fred Farley officiating. Special music will be provided by Pastor Eddie Day. Honoring her wishes the body has been cremated.

Friends may visit with the family from 5-6 p.m. Thursday, February 5 at Princeton Church of God.

Arrangements by Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.bailey-kirk.com.

“ Judy will never be forgotten. She was and still is such a special, understanding, kind, and funny lady. She has graduated to her eternal home and now resides in heaven with Jesus ~ a place I can remember her talking about many times, and longing to be there. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
