“ We love and miss youu. Your a great kind hearted person. Youu always helped us out and youu were pretty much like family. 1st and 7th grade youu taught me so much. Youu were moms bestfriend and she misses youu much. We had lots of fun and many smiles and laughter. Me and Brooke are getting close again like we were 1st through 2nd grade. Youu were like a 2nd mom to me. I miss homeschooling. Youd always bring me something and I loved how youu tought me in fun ways. We are always thinking about youu. 24/7. Im trying really hard in school and have been making good grades so far. Pikeview is a pretty good school like youu, mom, dad, sissy, and bubby said it would be. Thanks for everything we all loved having youu around and we know youu are with us at all times. I will make youu proud. Your always in our hearts. We will see youu one day. Promise.

“ Good afternoon. I no longer live in the Princeton area but periodically go online and read the Bluefield Daily Telegraph. I am so very sad today after reading about the passing of Mrs. Selvey. Yes, she will always be Mrs. Selvey to my family...she was my oldest son, Justin's first grade teacher at Silver Springs Elementary. She never forgot his name even as he grew up and his looks continued to change. As a matter of fact we ran into her at Cracker Barrel earlier this year and she took the time to ask how we were and how were things going. Being a teacher myself I know that sometimes running into people unexpected isn't always the "most" convenient but Mrs. Selvey never seemed to be bothered by taking out a few minutes of her day to make us feel important. My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you and hope that God's comfort will help you through.
