“ Katie I love you and miss you. I can remember all our Christmas as kids at granny bells. Us singing the songs we would have that year for the program. I missed you this year at awards day. We always set together and laughed and carried on about the kids and took pics of each other as the other was taking pics. You was always there for me I just wish I was there in your time to talk to. I love u katiedid...

I watched Kayla grow up from a from a small wee baby into the beautiful young lady she became. She was much loved and such a special person. Indeed, we will miss her, but I am sure her beautiful memories will comfort us until someday when we all meet again. Prayers and deepest sympathy go out to her precious family and loved ones. With love, Anne Lyle
