

Kyla Pacitto

October 9, 1944 - September 4, 2021

MATOAKA – Kyla Faye Pacitto, 76, of Matoaka, died Saturday, September 4, 2021. Born October 9, 1944 in New Richmond, she was the daughter of the late Roby Luther Holt and Irene Ellen Blankenship Holt Lusk.

Ms. Pacitto attended Bridge Baptist Church in Matoaka and Crosswalk Church in Daytona Beach, Florida. She loved the arts and had her own ceramic shop for several years in Matoaka. She earned her bachelor's degree later in life because she valued education very much. She was a STEM grant writer at Daytona State College. She loved her children and grandchildren and enjoyed every minute she spent with her family and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by one son, Louis Warren Pacitto; one sister, Sharon Snuffer; and one brother, Otis Rehm.

Survivors include four children, Robert Dale Vaught of Crescent City, FL, Roby Lee Vaught and wife Beverly of Matoaka, Victoria Vaught Cassidy of Daytona Beach, FL and Freddy Ray Vaught of Daytona Beach, FL; three brothers, Jimmy Blackburn and wife Shelly of Ormond Beach, FL, Chuck Holt and wife Diana of Daytona Beach, FL and Roger Holt and wife Colleen of Ormond Beach, FL; and five grandchildren, James Cassidy of Deland, FL, Emiley Vaught of Daytona Beach, FL and Maddox, Malachi and Micah Winterrowd all of Rock.

A memorial service will be conducted at 1:00 p.m. Monday, September 6, 2021 at Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton with Pastor Tom Carpenter and Rev. Kevin Farmer officiating.

Arrangements by Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. To view a video tribute to Ms. Pacitto, or share condolences with the family, please visit www.bailey-kirk.com.

“ Kyla was my first cousin. She and my sister Jenny were very close in age and “spirit” and did a lot of things together as young mothers. I always enjoyed their stories. She brought laughter to so many. May God grant her eternal peace and her children and grandchildren treasured memories.
