“ I know you are at peace now and no more pain. I will truly miss you. So many memories of us growing up together...You being my maid of honor when Buddy and I got married. Being with us when we were losing our daughter. Will never forget that and we were always thankful for your love and concern. To the family: we are truly sorry for your loss. Linda will always be in our hearts. Love you all.

“ Not only were you all my cousins, but my next door neighbors for many years. So many memories of all the wiffle ball games between the two houses. Whenever my son went missing, we knew where to find him. He would be in your house drinking coffee with Linda or Randall. My heart goes out to all of you. She will certainly be missed. I love you all!
