“ I know it has been years since I got to see this great lady, I still remember her loving smile and great personality. I remember visiting her with Heather when we were in high school. I am so sorry for your loss. I will be praying for you all.

“ To the family of Loma Combs: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death affects everyone on the face of this earth, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those grieving with comfort or a hope, but they do leave many with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29, Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19, Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:3, 4).
