“ Over 50 years ago, I attended bible school at Lilly Grove Baptist Church with a friend, and there I met Rev. Norman Arrington. That Sunday, my dad went along with me to church, and later we became members of the church. There, my dad met Lueanna. Soon, they decided to get married, and drove to the Roanoke, Va. area to be married by Rev. Arrington, who had since moved from Princeton. I left West Virginia over 35 years ago, and have been out of touch with everyone, but it pleases me to know that Rev. Arrington is still there, watching over his charges. Norman has been a guiding light in the back of my mind, as well as to everyone that has known him, for many, many years. Especially to my Dad and Lueanna.

It is good to know that he is there to help close this chapter of the family album.

Rest in Peace - Lueanna
