“ To the family of Mabel McClure: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death affects everyone on the face of this earth, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those grieving with comfort or a hope, but they do leave many with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29, Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19, Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:3, 4).

“ Mrs. McClure you will truly be missed by me, as you have been for almost 6 years. I just hoped you understood WHY I didn't come to visit you while you were in VA. I can now come to your grave to visit, I know you won't be there I'm not crazy but I will still talk to you. I love you and miss you. RIP.
