

Marcia Duncan

October 21, 2013

PRINCETON – Marcia G. Duncan, 62, of Princeton, died Monday, October 21, 2013. Born November 8, 1950 in Huntsville, AL, she was the daughter of the late Jimmie Erwin, Jr. and Lorene Greene Erwin.

Marcia was a graduate of Wilksburg High School and Slippery Rock University in Pittsburgh, PA. She was a school teacher in McDowell County from 1973 until her retirement in 2002 due to her battle with Multiple Sclerosis for the past 14 years. She touched many lives of her students and co-workers. She was a fighter and was a member of the MS support group in Princeton. Marcia dearly loved her family and her church family of Bethel United Methodist Church

Survivors include her devoted and loving husband of 32 years, James "Jim" Duncan of Princeton (formerly of Coalwood); one daughter, whom was also her caregiver, Mary Duncan Midkiff and her husband Eddie Midkiff, Jr. of Princeton; three beautiful granddaughters, Kendra and Kayla Hylton and Samantha Midkiff; one brother, Jimmie Erwin, Jr. and his wife Barbara of Westchester, PA; one sister, Sharon Fowler and her husband Scott Finley of Anderson, SC; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted at 12:00 p.m. Friday, October 25, 2013 at the Rowland H. Bailey Funeral Chapel of the Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton with the Rev. Casper Dalton, Jr. officiating. Interment will follow at Roselawn Memorial Gardens in Princeton. Friends of the family will serve as pallbearers.

The family will receive friends Friday, October 25, 2013 from 11:00 a.m. until service hour at the Bailey-Kirk Funeral Home in Princeton. To view a video tribute to Mrs. Duncan, or send the family online condolences, please visit www.bailey-kirk.com.

“ Dear nana Ducan this is your nephew Corey Mays. Marry has been telling me stories about hou used to hold me and spend time me as a baby. The love and effection that you have givin to my Auntie Marry. You raised her and truly had the biggest part of the amazing woman she's is today. I wish I couldve seen you more as I grew up and I had truly planned on seeing u a few times before you went to be with the lord but unfortunately events happened that hendered that. I will see you one day in heaven I promise you that and I promise you I will take care of Marry and my family anyway I can so u don't have to worry. Plus Eddie is a very loving man to Marry and the kids so I mean it when I say you don't have to worry anymore nana duncan . Much love and rest in peace you inspiring woman.

“ Blessings to the family of my friend Marcia. I will always remember our fellowship at Premier Methodist. We shared the piano playing, but Marcia was the leader. She was a leader in so many ways. I know she is in Heaven with my Mom. Jim, Mary, and all her family have the prayers of my family.
