“ To the family of Margaret Cordle: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). “ Cookie, Stevie, Andy and Tammy: Chris and I were so sorry to hear about your Mother. Our thought and prayers are with you all. May God give you comfort and peace during this time by knowing she is with God and your Dad. Sorry we could not be there today but Chris has now been feeling well (trouble breathing) and he's not feeling well today. If there is anything we can do please let us know. I have so many good memories of growing up at Arista and of your Mom and Dad. Would love to see all of you under different circumstances. Take care and remember cousins that we love you and are praying for you. Love & God Bless, Chris & Joyce (Cordle) Linkous
